2021 X·I CABERNET SAUVIGNON

OAK KNOLL DISTRICT, NAPA VALLEY

TASTING NOTES The 2021 X·I Cabernet Sauvignon is an eloquent expression of precision and balance, showcasing the exceptional character of its vintage. On the palate, it unfurls layers of dense blackcurrant, plush dark plum, and a hint of wild berries, seamlessly intertwined with a sophisticated touch of new oak that adds complexity. The structural elegance of this wine is underpinned by silky, well-integrated tannins that pave the way for a remarkably smooth texture, while a dash of spice and a subtle earthiness emerge, adding depth and intrigue. The finishing act is a graceful, lingering finish that echoes the harmonious integration of fruit, oak, and tannin—making each sip a testament to the meticulous craft behind this distinguished proprietary red blend. It's a wine that captivates the senses and promises to age with grace, hinting at an even more sophisticated palate to those patient enough to wait.

WINEMAKER'S NOTES "A true 5 varietal Estate Bordeaux Blend. Having the viticulture at your fingers to guide each of these plantings with just the right inputs and be blessed with a nearly perfect vintage like 2021 was a combination for success. I love the dark fruit and young tightly laced tannin feel. As young as these plantings are, I predict outstanding things in future vintages to come!" -Kirk Venge
