2022 X·I CABERNET SAUVIGNON

OAK KNOLL DISTRICT, NAPA VALLEY

TASTING NOTES The 2022 X·I Cabernet Sauvignon is a masterful display of elegance and structure, presenting a harmonious blend that captivates with each sip. It boasts a medium-plus body laden with velvety tannins and a sophisticated array of flavors from ripe plum to mixed berries. Toasted oak is gracefully integrated within the bouquet and palate, enhancing its richness and depth. The wine's buoyant character ensures the presence of fruit remains prominent and balanced against the bold yet smooth, lingering finish that leaves you yearning for more. Its drinkability at this stage suggests that it will continue to evolve, with softer tannins emerging and elevating the wine's refined character. This vintage not only captures the essence of its terroir but also the spirit of exceptional winemaking. Both immediately enjoyable and worthy of aging.

WINEMAKER'S NOTES "A true 5 varietal Estate Bordeaux Blend. Having the viticulture at your fingers to guide each of these plantings with just the right inputs and be blessed with a nearly perfect vintage like 2021 was a combination for success. I love the dark fruit and young tightly laced tannin feel. As young as these plantings are, I predict outstanding things in future vintages to come!" -Kirk Venge
